

WINNERS' CIRCLE BREAKFAST CLUB 2010

DURING THE 1980s, THE WINNERS' CIRCLE BREAKFAST CLUB WAS THE PLACE TO GO FOR UNEQUALED NETWORKING OPPORTUNITIES, UPLIFTING SPEAKERS, AND SUPPORTIVE OPTIMISM. SINCE ITS FINAL MEETING IN DECEMBER 1990, FANS OF WCBC HAVE NOSTALGICALLY WISHED THAT "WE COULD DO IT AGAIN."

WE CAN!

JOIN US ON NOVEMBER 9 FOR A SPECIAL REUNION AND CELEBRATION! BRING A FRIEND WHO MAY NOT HAVE EXPERIENCED THE UNIQUE WINNERS' CIRCLE DAYS.

About Roger Lane

Roger Lane has been an entrepreneurial freethinker all his life. In 1980 he and his business partner, Samantha Hampton, founded the Hawaii's WCBC. Together they brought hugely successful programs to Hawaii, such as Money and You and The Accounting Game. Roger was the owner of the first Apple computer store in Hawaii, Pineapple Computers. He currently resides in Hana, Maui, from where he provides business coaching to people from all over the nation. He is known for his magnetic and optimistic view of life, his "of course you can" attitude, and his imaginative and strategic thinking.

About Pam Chambers

Pam Chambers is known as Hawaii's Presentation Coach. Since 1985, she has helped thousands of people become better communicators — whether they speak to one person, to small groups, or to large audiences. Pam used to be "the shyest girl in the world," and avoided standing out in any way. But years later, she was propelled into the limelight when she accepted a position as sales manager for a seminar company in San Francisco. She then put herself through the challenging and rewarding process of becoming a public speaker. And now she teaches others to speak out.
